

project name Integration And Rural Development Project For Capitán Bado District

client Government Of Amambay (Paraguay) Lions Club “John F. Kennedy”, Lambaré (Paraguay)

location Capitán Bado District (Paraguay) project duration begin august 2004

end may 2004

water + sanitation
featured projects

The project intends to improve living conditions in the town and the district of Capitán Bado and includes:

- paved all weather road of 80 km (50 miles) to link the City of Capitán Bado with Paraguayan national road grid
- water supply, sanitary sewer and sewerage treatment for the City of Capitán Bado (8.100 inhab.)
- implementation of rural power supply based on photovoltaic off grid power generation
- improvement of indigenous land ownership, economic capacity building, reforestation and implementation of bilingual schools

example of rural electrification (l), example for proposed sewage treatment plant for Capitán Bado (r)

responsibilities

feasibility study:

- definition of target populations and assessment of needs
 - development of aims, tasks and key figures
 - conceptual design of the most needed and promising projects
- estimate of costs and risks for the program and the individual projects project schedule
- definition of the organizational framework, as well to include indigenous population

